CALISTA CORPORATION
www.calistacorp.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 27, 2016

Calista Corporation Closes Solstice Advertising

(Anchorage, Alaska) – Calista (cha-LIS-tuh) Corporation announces that Solstice Advertising is closing its operations this week.

Additionally, the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Tribal Providers Conference has been cancelled until further notice. All inquiries may be directed to the attention of Mr. Gary Hanson with the BIA-Alaska Region office at 907-271-1537 or gary.hanson@bia.gov.

Refunds to paid attendees, artists and vendors are being processed.

###

The second largest of the original 13 Alaska Native Corporations, Calista Corporation was established under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act of 1971 and represents approximately 13,000 Shareholders. The Calista region encompasses more than 6.5 million acres and includes 56 villages, which are incorporated into 46 individual village corporations. Since 1994, Calista has provided more than $4 million in scholarships and since inception, more than $43.2 million in dividends and Elders' Benefit Program distributions to its Shareholders and Descendants.

Calista Corporation is the parent company of more than 35 subsidiaries in the following industries: military defense contracting, construction, real estate, environmental and natural resource development, and information technology. Calista can be found on Facebook (www.facebook.com/CalistaCorporation) and Twitter (http://twitter.com/CalistaCorp). If you would like more information or to schedule an interview with Calista Corporation, please contact communications manager Thom Leonard at tleonard@calistacorp.com.

5015 Business Park Blvd., Suite 3000, Anchorage, AK 99503
t: (907) 275-2800 * f: (907) 275-2919